

The Grantwriting Committee for Busy Brains Children's Museum is responsible for exploring grant opportunities, examining the applicability of particular grants, and completing grant applications.

The Grantwriting Committee tasks are divided into the following:

- Exploring grant descriptions on the Internet or via Donors Forum
- Examining the grant descriptions for applicability to Busy Brains Children's Museum
- Completing the paperwork needed for the grants
- Gathering supporting documentation
- Copying and mailing or delivering grants

Participants in the committee can take one particular task to be responsible for, as these are ongoing endeavors. Most of the grant tasks can be completed at home and the Grantwriting Committee communicates via email, telephone calls, and as-needed meetings.

If you have any questions, or are interested in joining the Grantwriting Committee, please contact Chair Laura Franz at franzia7@comcast.net.

Thank you.
